

International Symposium on the 200th anniversary of Siebold's arrival in Japan.
The development of Siebold studies

Sunday, October 15, 2023

Nagasaki Museum of History and Culture

1-1-1 Tateyama Nagasaki Shi

SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM

Moderator: Kudo Kohei (associate professor, National Museum of Japanese History)

13:30 – 13:35 Opening: Nishitani Masaru (director-general, National Museum of Japanese History)

Moderator: Miyasaka Masahide (guest professor, Nagasaki Junshin Catholic University)

13:35 – 13:50 Report 1: Hidaka Kaori (professor, National Museum of Japanese History) : 'The Japanese exhibitions by Siebold and his son and their reconstruction: What the project of the National Museum of Japanese History aimed to achieve'

13:50 – 14:20 Report 2: Bruno. J. Richtsfeld (formerly vice director-general, Museum Fünf Kontinente): 'Wilhelm Heine's Japan paintings and their models in Siebold's Nippon'

14:20 – 14:45 Report 3: Katada Satoko (assistant professor, Kwansei Gakuin University): 'Alexander/Heinrich von Siebold research today: deepening and developing the history of German-Japanese relations'

(Break 15 minutes)

15:00 – 15:25 Report 4: Kimura Naoki (professor, Nagasaki University): 'From Siebold studies to the study of the history of foreign relations, and its expansion'

15:25 – 15:50 Report 5: Orita Takeshi (formerly director general, Siebold Memorial Museum): 'Siebold studies in Nagasaki'

(Break 5 minutes)

15:55 – 16:50 Comment and Q&A. Moderator: Miyasaka Masahide
Comment 1: Junichi Kobayashi (formerly vice director-generals, Tokyo : Metropolitan Edo-Tokyo Museum)
Comment 2: Kutsuzawa Nobukata (emeritus professor, Tokai University)
Concluding remarks: Constantin von Brandenstein-Zeppelin

16:50 – 16:55 Closing: Tokunaga Hiroshi (director general, Siebold Memorial Museum)

END